

介護の言葉：施設の人

Caregiver Vocabulary: People & Roles

Can-do: say and understand 12 everyday caregiver people and roles in a care facility resident staff nurse doctor care manager family senior colleague person in charge dietitian day shift night shift who is who and who to ask words.

1 · Vocabulary — 語彙

#	日本語	ROMAJI	ENGLISH	メモ / NOTES
1	利用者 りようしゃ	riyousha	a resident; the person you care for (利用者[りようしゃ]さん)
2	職員 しょくいん	shokuin	a staff member — everyone who works at the facility
3	介護福祉士 かいごふくしし	kaigofukushishi	certified care worker — the national caregiver qualification
4	看護師 かんごし	kangoshi	a nurse — tell the nurse about any change in a resident
5	医師 いし	ishi	a doctor (the formal word, used at work)
6	ケアマネ	keamane	care manager — plans each resident's care (short for ケアマネジャー)
7	栄養士 えいようし	eiyoushi	a dietitian — plans the meals
8	家族 かぞく	kazoku	family — a resident's family (ご家族[かぞく] = polite)
9	先輩 せんぱい	senpai	a senior colleague — ask them when you are not sure
10	担当 たんとう	tantou	in charge of; the person responsible (担当[たんとう]は誰[だれ]ですか)

a staff member — everyone who works at the facility certified care worker — the national caregiver qualification a nurse — tell the nurse about any change in a resident a doctor (the formal word, used at work)
care manager — plans each resident's care (short for ケアマネジャー)
a dietitian — plans the meals
family — a resident's family (ご家族[かぞく] = polite)
a senior colleague — ask them when you are not sure in charge of; the person responsible (担当[たんとう]は誰[だれ]ですか)
day shift
night shift	