口腔(こうくう)ケア：食事(しょくじ)の あとで

Oral Care — Rinsing, Brushing, and Dentures After a Meal — Scenario Dialogue

Can-do: Offer oral care after a meal: seat the resident upright, rinse first, brush gently, take dentures away to clean, and watch for coughing the whole time.

1 · Dialogue & Why — 会話

Hana (caregiver)

田中(たなか)さん、口腔(こうくう)ケアを しましょうか。

Tanaka-san, shall we do your mouth care?

Why: ～しましょうか invites rather than announces. Oral care goes INSIDE the mouth, so ask before you start every time — consent matters most where the care is most intimate.

Tanaka-san (resident)

ええ、お願(ねが)いします。

Yes, please do.

Why: A short acceptance. Wait for it. If it does not come, you do not start — the same rule as Ep 14.

Hana (caregiver)

いすに 座(すわ)ったままで 大丈夫(だいじょうぶ)ですよ。

Staying sitting up in the chair is fine.

Why: THE SAFETY POINT OF THIS EPISODE. Never lay a resident flat for oral care — water runs into the airway. Upright, chin slightly down. ～たままで means 'staying as you are'.

Hana (caregiver)

まず、うがいを しましょう。お水(みず)を どうぞ。

First let's rinse. Here's some water.

Why: Rinse BEFORE brushing: it loosens what is there and tells you how well they can hold and spit water. まず orders the steps out loud, which is what makes care predictable.

Tanaka-san (resident)

はい。……あ、すっきりしました。

Alright. Ah, that feels better.

Why: すっきり is the word residents actually use after care that leaves them clean — you met it in Ep 3 and Ep 4. Hearing it is your confirmation that the step went well.

Hana (caregiver)

つぎは 歯(は)を みがきますね。ゆっくりで 大丈夫(だいじょうぶ)ですよ。

Next I'll brush your teeth. There's no rush.

Why: Say what comes next before your hand moves. ゆっくりで 大丈夫(だいじょうぶ)ですよ (Ep 1) does as much work here as it does at waking — a mouth being cleaned by someone else is a tense thing.

Tanaka-san (resident)

入れ歯も ありますよ。

I have dentures too.

Why: 入れ歯 is the everyday word a resident uses; 義歯 is the one on the care record. Learn to recognise both and to SAY the friendly one.

Hana (caregiver)

はい、あとで きれいに 洗いますね。

Yes, I'll wash them clean afterwards.

Why: Dentures come out and are cleaned separately, every day. Say what you are doing with them — a resident whose teeth leave the room wants to know they are coming back.

Hana (caregiver)

むせないように 気をつけてくださいね。

Please be careful not to choke.

Why: The same sentence as Ep 2 at mealtimes, because the same risk is present. If a cough starts, STOP, sit them further forward, and report it — a cough during oral care is how 誤嚥 shows itself.

Hana (caregiver)

終わりました。お口の 中を 確認しますね。

All done. I'll just check inside your mouth.

Why: Always look afterwards: food left in a cheek is what causes trouble overnight. 確認します (Ep 18) is the same verb you use before a handover, and for the same reason.
