急変：転倒の とき

When a Resident Falls — Emergency Response — Scenario Dialogue

Can-do: Respond calmly when a resident falls: check them, tell them not to move, call for help, and reassure them.

1 · Dialogue & Why — 会話

Hana (caregiver)

山田さん、大丈夫ですか！

Yamada-san, are you all right?!

Why: The very first words at a fall: 大丈夫ですか checks consciousness and response. Say the resident's name to get their attention and check if they can answer you — that alone tells you a lot about their condition.

Yamada-san (resident)

いたい…。

It hurts...

Why: 痛い = 'it hurts'. In pain or shock, a resident will speak in short plain words. Your job is to stay calm and find out WHERE and HOW badly — next line.

Hana (caregiver)

動かないで ください。 今 すぐ 人を 呼びます。

Please don't move. I'll call someone right now.

Why: 動かないでください uses ～ないでください = 'please do NOT do ~'. After a fall you must keep the resident still — moving could worsen a fracture or injury. 今すぐ = 'right now'; 人を呼びます = 'I'll call someone'. Never leave them and never move them yourself first.

Hana (caregiver)

だれか 来て ください！ 山田さんが 転びました！

Someone come, please! Yamada-san has fallen!

Why: Call for help loudly and clearly: だれか来てください = 'someone please come'. 転ぶ = 'to fall over'; 転びました reports it in past polite. State WHO and WHAT so staff arrive ready. Reporting facts fast is the core of emergency 報告.

Hana (caregiver)

どこが 痛いですか。

Where does it hurt?

Why: どこが痛いですか = 'where does it hurt?' — どこ (where) + が marks the painful spot. This tells you and the nurse where the injury is. Ask calmly; don't press or touch the area yet.

Yamada-san (resident)

足が…。

My leg...

Why: 足 = 'leg/foot'. The resident names the painful part. Note it exactly to report to the nurse — 足が痛い ('the leg hurts').

Hana (caregiver)

わかりました。 そのまま 待って いて ください。 すぐ 看護師さんが 来ます。

Understood. Please stay just as you are. The nurse is coming right away.

Why: そのまま = 'as is / without changing position'; 待っていてください = 'please keep waiting'. Together: 'stay exactly as you are' — reinforcing don't-move. Then reassure with concrete help: すぐ看護師さんが来ます ('the nurse is coming right away').

Yamada-san (resident)

こわいです。

I'm scared.

Why: こわい = 'scared/afraid'. A fall is frightening for an elderly person. Acknowledging their fear and staying beside them matters as much as the physical care — next line.

Hana (caregiver)

大丈夫ですよ。 心配しないで。 そばに いますから、安心して ください。

It's all right. Don't worry. I'm right here, so please rest easy.

Why: そばに = 'right beside'; いますから = 'because I am (here)' — から gives the reason to feel safe. 安心してください = 'please be at ease'. Presence + reassurance calms the resident and prevents them from moving out of panic. 心配しないで (心配 from Ep 11) is the plain, close-in form — right for someone frightened on the floor.
